Executive Summary

Summary	The Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) has a statutory requirement to keep, maintain and make publicly available Registers of Declarations of Interest under section 140 of the National Health Service Act 2006 Act (as inserted by section 25 of the Health and Social Care Act 2012). Declarations of Interest also includes any offers of gifts and hospitality. This paper sets out a flow chart for declaring and managing conflicts of interest, as outlined within the CCG's Conflicts of Interest Policy and also reflects those declarations made by all members and colleagues in attendance at Committee meetings. There is also a requirement on the CCG to ensure for each conflict declared, appropriate management arrangements are in place and for these to be appropriately communicated. Until all arrangements are confirmed, all conflicts should be declared with any specific management arrangements required during the course of the meeting being determined by the Chair of the Committee, with an accurate record of action taken recorded in the minutes. The current register reflects the latest attendees.
Risk	High		Medium	✓	Low
	The main risk associated with this paper relate to Conflicts of Interests, both in terms of process, implementation and assurance. There are policies in place, however further implementation is required. The process of seeking declarations at each meeting acts as a safeguard, however the CCG could be challenged on the robustness of its arrangements.
Recommendations	Primary Care Commissioning Committee is asked to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Note the Register of Declarations of Interest in respect of the members of the Committee and the associated business of the meeting; and • Ensure appropriate action is taken as necessary in respect of any conflicts declared including gifts and hospitality.
